Reflection 2nd Sunday Lent

This is my Son , Listen to him.

*In the cloud and the mist the disciples were afraid.
They had climbed the mountain with Jesus, as they had been through tough times with him - times when people rejected him, mocked his sermons in the synagogue, condemned his compassion for people, and now they had seen his glory - They had seen him at the best humanity could offer and they had seen what divinity looked like ,the glory of God on the face of Jesus.*

We journey like that-Mountain steepness and boulders tire us, the summit seems far off, like trying to understand those we love, or trying to create some sort of a better world or trying to live up to the call of God.

And we glimpse glory like when the mists lifts on a mountain, the glory of love and of reconciliation, or the glory of God's nearness in prayer.

*If we're lost in a mountain mist we get afraid - and we get afraid in the mists of life - of losing our way, our health, our securities.
There are times when we glimpse in the lifting of the mist that God is with us on all of the journey,*

*Caring for us in all troubles, Offering us the word of life Naming each of us
His beloved Child*
