A sonnet for the feast by Malcolm Guite

In the Beginning, not in time or space,
But in the quick before both space and time,
In Life, in Love, in co-inherent Grace,
In three in one and one in three, in rhyme,
In music, in the whole creation story,
In His own image, His imagination,
The Triune Poet makes us for His glory,
And makes us each the other's inspiration.
He calls us out of darkness, chaos, chance,
To improvise a music of our own,
To sing the chord that calls us to the dance,
Three notes resounding from a single tone,
To sing the End in whom we all begin;
Our God beyond, beside us and within.

EXAM PRAYERS

If you know anyone who is sitting the State Exams this year and would like them included in our Masses, please write their name in the book provided on the table at the back of the church. All those named in this book will be included in our prayers at Masses coming up to and during the exams.

PRAYER CARDS are available for students and those who wish to pray for them: Please feel free to take one
